

Nate Adams brings over 35 years of experience to St. Louis County's Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. He began his career as a field monitor at MO-KAN, CCAC under the direction of Bruce Miller. After leaving MO-KAN he moved on to the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) as a DBE Supportive Services Consultant with IDOT's Bureau of Small Business Enterprises (SBE). As an outside consultant with SBE he monitored contracts for DBE compliance and workforce utilization. During his tenure with IDOT/SBE, Nate worked with Milton P. Johnson & Associates, Wicks Construction Services, and Ralph G. Moore & Associates to provide managerial and technical assistance to Minority, Women and Disadvantage contractors.
